

Birstein, May 2024

We are currently looking to expand our team

Sales Representative (m/f/d) national and international

in full time for our headquarter in Birstein

You are communicative, have a feeling for business and your heart beats for equestrian sports? Then you are exactly right with us!

This is us:

USG is a German equestrian equipment manufacturer and has been successful on the market for over 25 years. The owner-managed company focuses primarily on safety when it comes to products for riders and horses. The stock range includes well-known brands such as RSL Riders Touch riding gloves, Crosslander shoes, Care & Nutrition, Kieffer saddlery and much more.

Equestrian greats such as Michael Jung and Ingrid Klimke are among our brand ambassadors and USG is represented at every major event - because equestrian sport is our passion, which we also live out at work!

Your areas of responsibility:

- Carrying out advisory and sales talks with existing and new customers
- Order processing incl. creation of shipping documents
- International: Customs clearance, in particular creation of EX, customs declaration, Euro1.
- Complaints processing
- Participation in national and international trade fairs

This characterizes you:

- Completed commercial training or comparable qualification
- Confident in using common Office applications, especially Excel
- Business fluent in German and English, other languages an advantage
- Pleasant, confident appearance
- Distinct customer and service orientation
- Enjoys sales and the ability to inspire people

We offer you:

- High-quality products in a market with great potential
- Fair Compensation
- Motivated, reliable colleagues
- Design options within your area of responsibility
- Participation in company events
